

LEGAL UPDATE

Navigating through a crisis

29 May 2020 1 min read

COVID-19 has imposed extremely difficult trading conditions on South African companies like never before. These unprecedented events will impact on the way we manage our businesses for months and years to come.

Our panel of experts unpack the impact that the new economic dispensation will have on South African directors of companies and how they are expected to navigate their way around ongoing obstacles and challenges.

Listen to the audio recording

