

Koketso Rapoo

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Phone: +27 11 535 8135 Email: krapoo@werksmans.com Location: Johannesburg

Koketso Rapoo is an Senior Associate in the Disputes, Regulatory, and Digital Media and Electronic Communications practice areas. She advises on general commercial litigation, procurement and administrative law, electronic communications, aviation, financial sector regulation, corporate governance, constitutional law, aviation, and investigations. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Sciences and Law, and an LLB, both from Stellenbosch University.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Disputes
- Digital Media & Electronic Communications
- Regulatory

EXPERTISE

Litigation

- Disputes
- Digital Media & Electronic Communications
- Regulatory

CAREER

- Admitted as an Attorney, 2023
- Bachelor of Arts in Political Sciences and Law, Stellenbosch University, 2018
- LLB, Stellenbosch University, 2020

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ranked as a recommended/key lawyer by Legal 500 | 2024 | 2025 Dispute Resolution.
- Advising and representing a South African telecommunications and ICT-services company in a review application against the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa.
- Advising and representing the South African Reserve Bank and Prudential Authority in relation to the curatorship and liquidation of a bank.
- Advising and representing the South African Reserve Bank, the Prudential Authority and the Financial Intelligence Centre in proceedings instituted in the High Court and Equality Court by various entities in respect of disputes arising from the termination of bank accounts.
- Advising and representing a South African telecommunications company against a multinational software corporation in a dispute relating to software licences.
- Advising and representing a South African telecommunications company and ICT-services company against an open access fibre network operation in a dispute relating to access of electronic communication facilities.
- Advising and representing the South African Civil Aviation Authority in various review applications instituted by companies in the aviation sector.
- Advising a multinational software corporation in an investigation involving substantial volumes of custodial data linked to prospective criminal liability and civil liability.*
- Advising and representing a multinational management consulting company in relation to review proceedings against various organs of state.*
- Advising and representing an oil and gas exploration company in respect of certain disputes related to its South African co-shareholder.*
- Advising a multinational broadcasting company on various South African electronic communications requirements in relation to its business in South Africa.*
- Advising a large multinational software corporation in relation to potential procurement of services/software by an organ of state.*
- Advising and representing a US-based enterprise software company in a dispute with its South African partner.*
- Advising a multinational technology company on various South African electronic communications requirements in relation to its business in South Africa.*

Experience at a different law firm*

AUTHORSHIPS

- Co-authored article: “Is South Africa in a state of procurement limbo? Where to from here, for now?”
- Co-authored article: “And we dare to ask again – whose right is it to enforce a director’s fiduciary duties? The company or the creditors”
- Co-authored article: “Public Private Partnerships and the inescapable ties of Section 217”