

Siphamandla Dhlamini

ASSOCIATE

Phone: +27 11 535 8211 Email: sdhlamini@werksmans.com Location: Johannesburg

Siphamandla Dhlamini is an Associate and advises on various administrative and constitutional law matters relating to state procurement, mining and environmental matters. He is well-acquainted with all aspects of land reform, restitution and tenure, including evictions, labour tenant matters, relocations, expropriation, land claims, and informal land rights. He also advises on general dispute resolution and litigation.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Land Reform
- Mining & Environmental

EXPERTISE

Litigation

- Land Reform Restitution & Tenure
- Mining & Environmental

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

- Evictions
- Land Reform Restitution & Tenure
- Procurement
- Mining & Environmental
- Civil Litigation
- Administrative Law
- Commercial Law
- Competition Law

CAREER

- Admitted as an attorney, 2025
- LLB, University of Pretoria, 2021

HIGHLIGHTS

- Involved in several major land claims and tenure disputes, representing both the landowner and the claimants
- Represented major stakeholders in the South African public sector in various procurement disputes
- Advised various mining and property companies (including Anglo American, Sibanye-Stillwater and Sanlam Properties) on large-scale eviction and labour tenant matters
- Acted for major clients in judicial reviews relating to mining, and procurement.